

Scan-O-Gram Crossword, Winter 2009 edition

ACROSS

2. Necessary liquid for an Upper GI or Colon exam
7. Number of board-certified radiologists in X-Ray Consultants
9. Computed Tomographic _____ is a non-invasive study performed to demonstrate blood vessels
10. As a referring physician, are you able to have access to XRCMI's PACS system & view images & reports online?
11. Last name of one of XRC's interventional radiologists who specializes in the laser ablation of varicose veins
14. The founder of x-rays
17. An x-ray exam that demonstrates the excretory function of the urinary system (abbrev.)
19. Last name of one of XRC's mammography sub-specialists
20. Largest organ in the body
21. Bone density study (abbrev.)
23. A PA chest x-ray is always included with rib x-rays to rule out _____
25. Last name of other XRC interventional radiologist who specializes in the laser ablation of varicose veins

26. When noted on a PET scan, this is an indicator of a possible malignancy
28. The lateral malleolus is found in this body part
29. Past president of XRC
30. Picture Archival & Communications System (abbrev.)

DOWN

1. The name of XRC's Vein Clinic
3. This imaging modality is not available at XRC Medical Imaging
4. An imaging modality that does not use ionizing radiation
5. The business complex in which XRC Medical Imaging is located
6. XRC Medical Imaging's website is www. .com
8. Number of carpal bones in the wrist
12. A pulmonary condition characterized radiographically by voluminous, hyper-aerated lung fields
13. Located within XRCMI, this entity provides pre-procedure evaluation & post-procedure follow-up for invasive procedures
15. A new technique for treating uterine fibroids is Uterine Artery _____
16. To work up a patient with pulmonary nodules, you might want to order a _____ scan
18. Last name of another of XRC's mammography sub-specialists
22. Last name of XRC's neuroradiology sub-specialist
24. New president of XRC
27. Hospital with which XRC Medical Imaging is affiliated (abbrev.)

Look for answers at www.xrcmi.com